Challenge #290: Unlock a World of Opportunities

A solution to last week's challenge can be found here.

Welcome to a special Weekly Challenge where we will send you on a scavenger hunt to find a hidden word!

This week the Alteryx Certification Team has put together a special challenge that will put your Core skills to the test! Using a dataset compiling a portion of the Core Certification passing exam attempts from the past two years, you will solve 7 clues to find the hidden word. And then, with the Bonus Challenge discover the ultimate message from the Certification team.

This dataset represents Community users from all over the world that have passed the Core Certification exam and earned their Core Badge. (Percentages have been randomly generated, they are not actual exam results.)

Hint
For each clue you answer, make sure to label the column "Answer".

Good luck!
